

Colonial Bank Employee Pride Week Celebration

A happy Colonial Bank employee proudly displays her appreciation gifts.

Per Nicole Cunningham who was the Employee Appreciation Committee Chair, "There were so many decisions to make and you made my job so much easier! Everyone had so many great things to say about our week. Several people couldn't decide what their favorite gift was."

This is an outstanding recognition program whereby each of the first four days of the week the employees receive a gift and on the 5th day a personal visit by Colonial Bank President Harlan Parrish and Michael Esper, Executive Vice President of Marketing, thanking them for their role in the bank's success. The gifts were:

- Portable Lunch Tote
- Notepad Folder
- Embroidered Polo Shirt
- Handmade chocolate with gift card good for one day off

Employee Kathy Godesky wrote this note the week following: "Thank you so much for the yummy chocolate "Thank You" bar. You did a wonderful job with our Employee Appreciation gifts this year!"

Blessed Edmund Rice School Gear

"Working with Promotional Incentives is an easy process," says Joan Cabai, alumnae of the Rice School and member of the Board of Regents. "The staff is quick to respond to requests and is thorough in providing a product that meets the needs of the client. Our students and graduates wear our new shirts and hoodies with pride and make us easily recognizable at Diocesan functions." The volunteers (far left) loved their Blessed Edmund Rice shirts, while those on the right spread the word with their "Roamin' Catholic" large full color coffee mugs.

Bringing the public face to face with Lee BIA

"We finally made the decision to buy shirts for our staff. The shirts exceeded our expectations: soft fabric, washable, and wrinkle free what more could you possibly ask for. We wish we had bought these years ago. Due to the fact that we attend countless meetings for the association by wearing these shirts with our BIA logo we are easily identified as staff members. Thanks Promotional Incentives for providing us with exceptional quality in product and service." JoAnn Orr Assistant Executive Officer - Lee Building Industry Association
